

International Day of Zero Waste observed

International Day of Zero Waste was observed on March 30 wherein about 200 School Eco-Club members participated actively. The events included awareness campaign about waste management and display of reusable items, decorative and crafts made from waste materials. Other activities included "Reuse Swap Event" which encouraged students as well as school staffs to exchange pre-loved items, reducing waste and giving goods a second life, recycling plastic and paper waste and cleanliness drive around the school compound.

>> Read more

World Wildlife Day observed

Eco-club members from various schools celebrated World Wildlife Day on March 03, 2025 highlighting wildlife conservation and awareness. Activities included poster making, drawing and speech competitions. Students also engaged in creative upcycling, transforming discarded glass bottles into beautiful vases and egg cartons into flowers, showcasing the potential of waste materials.

>> Read more

International Day of Actions for River observed

March 13, 2025: Pabyuik GSSS, Rumtek SSS and Bongten SSS observed International Day of Action of Rivers promoting awareness through speeches, poetry recitations, quiz competitions and drawing presentations. They also participated in a cleanup drive to remove plastic litters from the local stream, emphasizing the importance of protecting rivers and pledging to sustain conservation efforts.

>> Read more

World Recycling Day observed

Sikkim School Eco-club celebrated World Recycling Day on 18th March, 2025 with various activities promoting sustainability. Students participated in hands-on recycling activities, including repurposing plastic waste, repairing wall hangings, and refilling vermin-compost pits. A video screening and community cleanup drive were organized and students pledge to adopt responsible waste management to contribute to a green planet.

>> Read more

World Sparrow Day

World Sparrow Day observed globally on March 20th, raises awareness about sparrow population decline. This year's theme "I Love Sparrow" encourages conservation efforts. Sikkim School Eco-club members conducted awareness programs, including sparrow-counting activities, spotting around 40 sparrows on campus, fostering responsibility towards conservation.

>> Read more

International Day of Forest celebrated:

Sikkim Eco-clubs celebrated International Day of Forests 2025 with activities like drawing, essay writing, quiz competition, awareness speeches, interaction quizzes, plantation activities and nature walks.

>> Read more

World Water Day observed:

Sikkim Eco-Club Schools celebrated pre-World Water Day 2025 with activities such as sensitization on need of glacier preservation, emphasizing sustainable practices for future generation.

>> Read more